Excerpt from America and the Great War for Humanity and Freedom I shall also attempt to show how crucial was the situation in Europe at the psychological moment of our declaration of war, and how truly at that time the fate of humanity seemed to be hanging upon our decision and our action; and how momentous for ourselves and for others was the action of our government in accepting the hostile challenge Of the German Empire. Winner of the Northern California Independent Booksellers Award for Poetry (2009) Winner of the American Book Award (2009) In 1965, when the poet Jack Spicer died at the age of forty, he left behind a trunkful of papers and manuscripts and a few copies of the seven small books he had seen to press. A West Coast poet, his influence spanned the national literary scene of the 1950s and '60s, though in many ways Spicer's innovative writing ran counter to that of his contemporaries in the New York School and the West Coast Beat movement. Now, more than forty years later, Spicer's voice is more compelling, insistent, and timely than ever. During his short but prolific life, Spicer troubled the concepts of translation, voice, and the act of poetic composition itself. My Vocabulary Did This to Me is a landmark publication of this essential poet's life work, and includes poems that have become increasingly hard to find and many published here for the first time.

Pobalscoil Chloich Cheannfhaola (P.C.C.) is a community school located in the Gaeltacht area of Falcarragh in the beautiful North West of Co. Donegal. Every year, 2nd-year students who participate in the Junior Certificate Schools Programme (JCSP), have the opportunity to get involved in the JCSP Make a Book exhibition. Students create a book based on a subject that is of interest to them and then display it alongside books created by students from schools all over the North West of Ireland. This wonderful showcase represents many hours of work by the students and their teachers and is a chance for students to exhibit their many skills and talents. Over the last few years, our school has been very fortunate to be able to collaborate with Pobal le Chéile, a local community development group in Falcarragh. This collaboration has been a very positive experience for the students and staff at P.C.C. and has served to help build links in the community. It has also given our JCSP students the opportunity to work with some of their greatly talented staff and learn so much through workshops, visits and talks. This year, Rang Eoin chose to create a digital book based around a tree planting project they undertook. The idea for this project came about through a donation of trees to the school and community from "Trees on the Land" which is a charity and not-for-profit project from the Green Economy Foundation in collaboration with The Woodland Trust in Northern Ireland. As a JCSP librarian, it is always a proud moment when students see their finished book for the first time and can celebrate the fact that they are authors, no mean feat at the age just of 14 or 15 years old. Sarah Ball, JCSP Librarian
