The Beauty of the Triune God

New York Times bestselling author Dorothea Benton Frank takes readers on a rollicking ride in this Lowcountry tale about a woman whose unconventional friends and family show her the real meaning of unconditional love. Anna Lutz Abbot considers herself independent and happy—until one steamy summer when her collegiate daughter comes home a very different person, her wild and wonderful ex-husband shows up on her doorstep, and her flamboyant new best friend takes up with Anna's father. And the already hot temperatures are cranked up another ten degrees by Anna's own fling with Arthur, who is, heaven help her, a Yankee. Now Anna must face the fact that she isn't as in control of her life as she'd thought. And she must find a way to deal with the whole truth—not just the comfortable parts.

Careers in Cosmetology

Many writers have interesting material and can come up with the most intense, on edge and sometimes even hilarious novels that catch reader's attention. Reading is a joy for some. Perhaps it peeks the reader's curiosity to thoroughly read each unpredictable page, while being blind to what the end entails. Just as "A THREE LOVE BATTLE" has a mysterious / blissful ending that some may find "warming and Nurturing". My second untitled book due for release in November of 2013 should be more exiting with an unexpected ending. Anika Meade is a forty year old mother of three, and resides in Charlotte, NC. While striving for the best life has to offer for her three children. Anika has always had a dream of becoming a professional hair stylist, and has even attended Beauty College, but to become a writer who writes from her real life of experiences that she can share with readers, proves to be a more rewarding experience.

Writing Young Adult Fiction For Dummies

"Essentials of Young Adult Literature" Based on a genre approach to literature, this long-awaited book offers a comprehensive, clear, and succinct overview of adolescent literature. It includes recommended books listed by genre and topic, and engages readers by offering a thorough discussion of the major trends and issues affecting young adult literature such as censorship, the literary canon, and accountability. It provides clearly stated positions on the current issues affecting schools and literature. Written by well-known authors Carl Tomlinson and Carol Lynch-Brown, "Essentials of Young Adult Literature" places emphasis on reading a wide variety of young adult literature and addresses all types and formats of literature including novels, short stories, graphic novels, and picture books for older readers. In addition, notable authors are featured in each genre chapter and multicultural and international literature is integrated throughout the book and then treated more fully in its own chapter. Current and future teachers will appreciate the authors' practical strategies for connecting secondary school students with young adult books, such as how to select books that students will read and enjoy, how to motivate resistant readers to read, and how to develop text sets for classroom study across the curriculum. Readers will be equipped with the knowledge to use trade books as excellent teaching and learning materials and will not be limited to using textbooks alone. Key Features "Literature Across the Curriculum" features found in all genre chapters give examples of how young adult literature can help students and teachers in the content areas learn or present course content in a more interesting, memorable way. Extensive lists of recommended books briefly annotated with topics and age levels follow each genre chapter. One full chapter devoted to addressing the specific needs of resistant readers give middle and high school teachers much-needed strategies for addressing common obstacles to reading and for motivating students to read. Every chapter presents one to three charts with information about milestone books, history of specific genres, and research. Appendices feature Young Adult Book Award lists and YA Magazines, organized by content area and include ordering information. By the same authors Essentials of Children's Literature, Fifth

As an eleven-year-old girl living in Iran, Zahra's life was forever changed after her father was killed instantly in a car accident. In this firsthand account, Zahra recounts her journey of personal growth and intimate relationship with God that ultimately gave her the strength to end her abusive twenty-two-year marriage. In this tale of self-growth, Zahra describes her daily struggles as a mother and a wife, and the spiritual transformation that led her to independence. From dealing with her father's tragic death to her rushed marriage to a man she hardly knew, Zahra shares her intimate conversations with God and how he has been there every step of the way, to help guide her through the pain, tears, dark days, and ultimately to the joy she has found today. Her faith in God allowed her to find the courage to seek justice when she thought no one was out there and enabled her to end her destructive cycle of marriage. It inspired her to follow her dreams and led her to find her passion in life. The Breakthrough demonstrates the power of God and the inspiration that can be found among those who believe in him.

The God America Loves to Hate

When licensed cosmetologist turned publisher's rep Kathy Patrick lost her job due to industry cutbacks, she wasn't deterred. One year later, she opened Beauty and the Book, the world's only combination beauty salon/bookstore. Soon after, she founded The Pulpwood Queens of East Texas -- a reading group that dared to ask the question, "Does a book club have to be snobby to be serious?" The idea spread like wildfire. Now there are about 70 chapters nationwide. The overriding rule -- aside from wearing the club's official tiara, hot pink, and leopard print outfits -- is that the groups must have fun. The club's mission: To get America reading. THE PULPWOOD QUEENS' TIARA-WEARING, BOOK-SHARING GUIDE TO LIFE celebrates female friendship, sisterhood, and the transformative power of reading. It includes life principles and motivational anecdotes, hilarious and heart-warming stories of friendships among the Queens, and stories from Kathy about the books that have inspired her throughout her life, complete with personalized suggested book lists.

The School of Beauty and Charm

THE 52nd KID- If you counted, you know there are forty-nine chapters. Two are "double" because each married another classmate, so that leaves one-one. My story is told all the way through: clever, huh! To condense the facts, however, I need to say that I'm married to Robert "Bob" Wilson, and I have a daughter, Kim; her husband, Mike; and two grandchildren, Andrew and Gloria. They are the truest blessings that God has given me, next to His assurance of everlasting life. The class of '52 is a continual source of delight, surprise, and frustration-and those of us who meet in Tulsa on a fairly regular basis are luckier than all the rest. The photo is from the 1998 Home for the Holidays when I was inducted into the Daniel Webster Hall of Fame.

God Went to Beauty School

GOD HAS INSPIRED ME TO WRITE MY LIFE TESTIMONY, THIS IS NOT A STORY, IT'S A TESTIMONY HOW GOD HAS SEEN ME THROUGH THE TRIALS OF LIFE, I AM STILL HERE TO TESTIFY OF THE GOODNESS OF JESUS CHRIST, WHO IS THE HEAD OF MY LIFE, THE LOVER OF MY SOUL, AND THE PROVIDER THAT NO MAN CAN TOUCH. HE ALLOWED ME TO SAY (GOD CAN DO IT) I AM WRITING ON THE INSPIRATION OF GOD'S ANOINTING POWER ONLY BECAUSE I CAN NOT DO ANYTHING ON MY OWN. I DO NOT KNOW THE REASON FOR THE BIRTHING OF THIS BOOK, ONLY GOD HAS THAT ANSWER; I 'M JUST AN INSTRUMENT WHICH HE CAN WORK THROUGH. GOD SAW IT WAS GOOD FOR ME TO LIVE, HE HAS DEPOSITED ANOINTING ON MY LIFE TO GO AND SHARE HIS GOOD NEWS OF JESUS CHRIST TO TELL THAT HE LIVES AND HE IS STILL WORKING MIRACLES TO DAY. I PRAY THAT THIS BOOK WILL TOUCH SOMEONE'S LIFE THAT IT WILL BRING THE FRUITS OF SALVATION, HEALING AND DELIVERANCE, A HEALING OF HOPE. GODS HOLY ANOINTING IS AN IMPACT ON OUR LIVIES IT SENDS US INTO A METAMORPHOSIS STAGE. WHAT I MEAN, IT'S A CONSTANT CHANGE. BEFORE THE CHANGE CAN TAKE PLACE, THERE IS A TIME WHEN IT FEELS LIKE EVERYTHING STOPS. NOTHING IS HAPPENING, JOB LOST, CHRISTIAN FRIENDS DON'T COME AROUND, EVEN FAMILY STAYS AWAY, BE NOT IN DISPARE GOD IS WORKING EVERYTHING OUT ON OUR BEHALF AND GOD IS IN CONTROL A BIRTHING IS TAKING PLACE, OR A CONCEPTION IS GOING ON. LIKE CHILD BIRTH IT'S PAINFUL, GOD HAD ESTABLISHED IT FROM THE FOUNDATION OF THE WORLD.

Baggage

I have felt for many years that there have perhaps never been a 75 to 100 years that have seen so much progress and change, both for good and bad. Life has always been mixed with both good times and bad times, and so it will until the Lord returns. But this type of good and bad is not what I am writing about. In the horse and buggy era and early years of the car, there were a lot of hard times: poverty, sickness, and epidemics, but by and large, the moral fiber of most people was much better than now. There are many things to blame, but the sad part of this is that I believe the Christians are the most to blame for not getting involved. The scapegoat idea: it's all in the Lord's hands, we don't have to worry or do anything. In the meantime, much has happened because of the ACLU, our court system, the pressure of the entertainment world and the Democratic party, and too many Republicans voting wrong. It is already illegal for the kids to pray in school or even take their Bible to school. They are trying to get "In God We Trust" off our money and take for God and Country out of the Pledge of Allegiance. However, I feel there is a trend now of thinking seriously about God and morals and hard work, and there will have to be if this world is going to last. So I am dedicating this to my nine children, grandchildren and great grandchildren and anyone who reads it that it will help them see what a change has taken place in the 1900's and that it might help them on the road of life, plus hopefully bring some enjoyment.

Bulletin of the Center for Children's Books

COSMETOLOGISTS ARE TRAINED TO MAINTAIN and care for hair, skin, and nails. Most are hair stylists, estheticians, nail technicians, or makeup artists. This is a very broad industry that offers numerous opportunities to specialize in very specific kinds of work. For example, a trained hair stylist might work only with wigs and hairpieces, or a makeup artist might work in live theater or for a local TV station. Most specializations are based on personal preference and experience, but some such as microderm abrasion or master coloring, require advanced training.

There are more than 600,000 of these professionals working in the US. That number is expected to rise faster than the average for the foreseeable future. The demand for licensed cosmetologists is greatest in hair salons and barber shops, nail salons, and day spas. There are also many jobs being created in resort hotels and department stores, on cruise ships and film and television sets, and backstage at fashion shows and magazine photo shoots. There are even traveling cosmetologists who bring their services to people in their own homes, assisted living facilities, hospitals, or small towns that do not have a salon. If you are creative, good with people, and willing to keep learning more about your craft, this could be the right career choice for you. Cosmetology is a rock-solid profession that thrives even through economic downturns. Women and men always want to feel good about the way they look - almost more than anything else.

A deeply compelling collection of poems about God and our everyday world from a Newbery medalist. Cynthia Rylant takes teens on an invigorating spiritual journey as she explores what God's life on Earth might be like. Rylant's reflective and often humorous verse follows God as he tries out human activities such as getting a dog, writing a fan letter, and making spaghetti. God Went to Beauty School combines the awesome with the everyday in an accessible, thought-provoking, and intelligent manner.

Alice is making her daughter dinner when her mother Olivia, who left her at a day care center when she was four-years-old, appears at her door. Although Alice has managed to navigate an unforgiving foster care system to build a good life for herself, she has never really recovered from her mother's disappearance. Olivia's sudden reappearance is like a quiet, unexplained gift. Over the next couple of weeks Alice asks Olivia to dinner. Olivia is always dropped off by a friend and sits peacefully as Alice and her daughter talk over the meal. One afternoon Alice gets a call from the hospital telling her that Olivia is dead. The only identification the hospital could find was Alice's number with the word "daughter" written underneath it. She goes to pick up Olivia's things and finds the key to her apartment. It is here that the mystery of Olivia's past is slowly uncovered and Alice begins to understand how the power of hatred can hold a woman down and how the power of friendship can lift her up again. Not since her bestselling book The Friendship Cake has Hinton created characters who are so filled with heartache and fragile hope, that they will become a permanent part of the reader's life.

"A Blessing of Sunshine" traces one woman's journey virtually from childhood through adolescence and into adulthood. This true story touches upon diverse challenges of an abandoned infant that was adopted by a wonderful elderly couple. This couple had a very strict, stern religious belief. They also had raised a large group of children that had already left the nest. The empty nest put all the focus on Susan and the pressures of being the perfect Christian child. This rigid religious controlled childhood made it seem impossible to be happy, and left many questions not allowed to be answered, as children were to be seen and not heard! The stress and pressure was more than she could take. She was always afraid she would not be worthy of going to heaven or being in the rapture if Jesus returned to earth. Susan Gore was born in the United States, where she has spent her entire life. She was abandoned by her birth mother and adopted by an elderly couple that had already raised eight children and had grandchildren. Per her Adoptive mother's wishes she married, graduated from high school, became a hair dresser, worked as a stylist for a few years, became a mother, and then changed careers to the business world. Still not fulfilled and after experiencing some unusual phenomena, she discovered the healing arts. In 2001 she attained a second degree certification in Reiki, the Usui System of Natural Healing. She began working with energy healing and experienced many healings of her own. Brought up in a strict protestant environment, later in life she discovered the Universe doesn't look at the names of religions or rules at all, it's what inside the mind, heart and spirit that matters.

From Then 'til Now

For thirty years, Stratford Caldecott has been an inspirational figure in liturgy, fantasy literature, graphic novels, spirituality, education, ecology and social theory. Hundreds of people have learned from his spiritual approaches to the great existential questions. The Beauty of God's House is a Festschrift dedicated to him. The book seeks to cover the whole range of Caldecott's interests, from poetics to politics. Anyone interested in the field of theology and the arts will find much to intrigue them in this delightful multi-authored volume. The common core of Stratford's interests is in the beauty of the cosmos and how it reflects the beauty of God. This book is about the beauty of God's "realm," and it conceives God's realm as the arts, politics, liturgy, religions, and human life. It touches on the many places where beauty and spirituality overlap. It is an engagement in theological aesthetics that goes well beyond the "aesthetic."

The Pulpwood Queen's Tiara-Wearing, Book-Sharing Guide to Life

A shed weight loss journey you can afford is to help you lose the weight you desire, first I must tell you that it is not easily, but a willing mind and determine spirit must first be your focus and you must not be sidetracked with any circumstance that you will be facing in this journey of connecting with your mind and body. Many have tried to lose weight and failed in their trying; my hope is that as you read this book, it will help you to see yourself and be willing and determined to follow it and lose the weight you want. It was a struggle for me to meet the thirty days ahead, but as I thought about the women that would like to lose weight but fail in their trying, I began to pray about what I could do to help and God led me to start a connected journey and what type of food to eat and how to apply it so it would not be unhealthy for anyone. The road to any journey is unknown until we start that journey and complete it. I knew that I would lose the weight because my mind and body was connected when I took a hard, serious look at myself in the mirror. It was as if I saw a bubble doll that has so many rolls of fat, and at that time, I only weighed 172, but as each day passed, I was getting fatter and fatter. So I refused to let my body overrule my mind; it was a moment of tenseness and frustration, but then as I looked and saw, I decided to do the impossible and trust God for the possible. It is a fact that no eating after 6:00 PM or two hours before you retire to bed is because your metabolism slows down and what you eat and lie down will not burn fat, and that morning will turn into fat, so you could not eat late at night while on this connecting journey. This is a sure way of knowing that you can shed some pounds off when you follow the menu as close as you can. All this information is under girdle by the grace of God and my life experience and only what I did to accomplish this goal; I did not have a trainer (could not afford one, even if I needed one), did not sign up for any program or exercise, did not go to the gym, but with the help of God Almighty. Now let me tell you about what I was around 24/7, and that was food because I served the seniors' dinner five days a week; did doing that cause me to forget my goal? No, because I was determined to fight the temptation, and with prayer, I was not tempted to eat. So the food did not get in my way to cause me to override what I started out to do. So if you are married and have children, that will not be a problem if you really want to lose pounds. So go for it, feed your family what is necessary and eat as you are told in this book and your family will be so pleased that you can take care of them and find time for yourself. So do what's important for you to bring more stability and a more active, energized, outgoing mother that brings balance to the family, and you will have more energy to do what you could not do before you lost the pound for the journey.

Daniel Webster's 52 Kids

The eighteenth-century Puritan theologian Jonathan Edwards has become popular again in contemporary theological discussion. Central to Edwards' theology is his concept of beauty. Delattre wrote the standard work on this topic half a century ago. However, Delattre approaches Edwards mainly as a philosopher, and he does not address how Edwards employs the concept of beauty to explain and defend traditional Reformed doctrines. Recent writings by McClymond, Holmes, and others have shown that defending the Reformed tradition is a fundamental concern of Edwards. This work reveals how Edwards, starting with the common notion that beauty means the appropriate proportional relationship, develops a theological aesthetic that contributes to a rational understanding of major doctrines such as the Trinity, Christology, and eschatology. It shows that Edwards is both an innovative speculative theologian and a staunch defender of Reformed orthodoxy.

Soon after the fall of the Taliban, in 2001, Deborah Rodriguez went to Afghanistan as part of a group offering humanitarian aid to this war-torn nation. Surrounded by men and women whose skills—as doctors, nurses, and therapists—seemed eminently more practical than her own, Rodriguez, a hairdresser and mother of two from Michigan, despaired of being of any real use. Yet she soon found she had a gift for befriending Afghans, and once her profession became known she was eagerly sought out by Westerners desperate for a good haircut and by Afghan women, who have a long and proud tradition of running their own beauty salons. Thus an idea was born. With the help of corporate and international sponsors, the Kabul Beauty School welcomed its first class in 2003. Well meaning but sometimes brazen, Rodriguez stumbled through language barriers, overstepped cultural customs, and constantly juggled the challenges of a postwar nation even as she learned how to empower her students to become their families' breadwinners by learning the fundamentals of coloring techniques, haircutting, and makeup. Yet within the small haven of the beauty school, the line between teacher and student quickly blurred as these vibrant women shared with Rodriguez their stories and their hearts: the newlywed who faked her virginity on her wedding night, the twelve-year-old bride sold into marriage to pay her family's debts, the Taliban member's wife who pursued her training despite her husband's constant beatings. Through these and other stories, Rodriguez found the strength to leave her own unhealthy marriage and allow herself to love again, Afghan style. With warmth and humor, Rodriguez details the lushness of a seemingly desolate region and reveals the magnificence behind the burqa. Kabul Beauty School is a remarkable tale of an extraordinary community of women who come together and learn the arts of perms, friendship, and freedom.
