The Sunday School and Its Methods

The King James Bible for ebook readers, desktops, tablets and phones. Including Old Testament and New Testament, this is a wonderful tool that keeps the scriptures at your fingertips. The translation that became the Authorized King James Bible was begun in 1604 and in 1611 was published by the Church of England, under the direction of King James. The translation was done by forty-seven Church of England scholars, the New Testament coming from the Greek Textus Receptus (Received Text), the Old Testament from the Masoretic Hebrew text, and the Apocrypha from the Greek Septuagint (LXX), except for two Esdras from the Latin Vulgate.

100 Most Asked Questions About the Bible

Organized Sunday School Work in America, 1911-1914

Children have tough questions about the Christian faith. Many times, it seems parents struggle to answer these questions confidently. What do we do when they ask, "Why does God allow suffering?" "Can we trust the Bible?" "What is a Christian worldview?" In The 21 Toughest Questions Your Kids Will Ask About Christianity small group curriculum, author and speaker Alex McFarland offers insight and clarity to parents who are unsure how to handle these daunting questions. In six 30-minute video sessions, Alex helps us better understand our own faith and how to communicate it to our children. This Participant's Workbook includes discussion-oriented questions based on the video sessions with spaces and wide margins for note taking as well as key passages from Alex's book The 21 Toughest Questions Your Kids Will Ask About Christianity (Tyndale House, 2013).

Questions on the Historical Books of the New Testament

. Did Jesus ever have sex? . Was Jesus ever wrong? . Do people have to choose to follow Jesus to go to heaven? Ever get the feeling that you can't ask those kinds of questions at church? But if we can't ask the tough, keep-you-awake-at-night questions within our faith communities, then what good are those communities? Listen in as more than a dozen contributors-whose ranks include a lawyer, a recovering achiever/lapsed vegetarian, ministers (ordained and not ordained), and more-discuss the questions your Sunday school teachers were afraid to answer. Also look for Banned Questions about the Bible, available at www.chalicepress.com, and e-mail your own "banned" questions to cpiatt@christianpiatt.com for future books. Banned Questions series editor Christian Piatt is a managing editor for PULP, an independent alt-monthly publication for southern Colorado; a musician, spoken word artist, and cofounder of Milagro Christian Church in Pueblo, Colorado; cocreator and coeditor of the WTF? The Sunday-school World

Whether you are just beginning your Personal Walk with God or have been on this highly significant journey for years, there are always questions that may not be discernable due to the living, growing, complex nature of the message of God's Word; the Bible. Readers of this "God-breathed" Word often get distracted from its central theme; to know Jesus the Christ, by issues pertaining to the people, the situations, the rituals, the doctrines, and the stories they have heard, and maybe not read, which have been handed down for generations. This book is a collection of real questions asked by everyday people, Christians and those seeking to be Christians, on subjects ranging from "Jonah and the Whale" and "How to become a Christian", to the actual validity of the Bible itself. The answers were broadcast on a weekly radio show by Pastor James R. Reese Jr. who's Pastoral career spanned well over 60 years. It is an excellent source to accompany any Bible Study or just to pick up and begin reading. The first draft of this book was taken from the actual recordings of his broadcasts which took place in several different states over a time period of 50 years. The manuscript was first typed by Pastor James R. Reese Jr. himself on a now considered antique manual typewriter. It was then carried around in a box for many more years. At the urging of Pastor James R. Reese Jr.'s son, Pastor Scott Reese, the box was finally opened and its contents put on a computer file in 2003. The final editing began in 2010 and was completed in May of 2011 for presentation to the publisher. This book contains a wealth of information and knowledge inspired by a man who let his light shine "before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven" (Matthew 5:16). The completion of this book has been a labor of love for all of us involved and we pray that you will follow Pastor James R. Reese's light and let your own light shine.

Sunday-School Success

While reading Ham & Beemer's "Already Gone," author Dan Kreft realized that the Sunday school curriculum that he co-authored was failing to give his students the tools they needed to defend their faith outside of the four walls of the church. Feeling convicted that he was part of the problem of two-thirds of youth deciding to abandon the faith before they even reached high school, Kreft jettisoned his curriculum and started over again. From that point on, he focused intently on teaching his students how to give reasonable answers to reasonable questions and critiques of Christianity. He also became keenly interested in getting parents involved, and to that end began to email a synopsis of each lesson on Sunday to the students' parents on Monday night. These emails became the foundation upon which "'Jesus' Is Not the Answer to Every Sunday School Question" is based. In "Book 3: Practical Apologetics," Kreft takes the principles learned in the first two volumes of his book ("Foundations," and "Who is God?") and applies them to situations from everyday life: a YouTube video purporting to use math to disprove the flood of Noah's day, a pair of Mormon missionaries at the door, and a months-long encounter with a Jehovah's Witness on a commuter bus after work. He also presents biblical answers to questions that come from our culture, such as "Does God want me to be happy?" and "Was it possible for Jesus to have sinned during His temptation in the desert?" He also relates biblically-based answers to some questions that his students have asked over the years, for example "Is there a sin you can commit that would cause you to lose your salvation?" and "Why would God make Lucifer so appealing if He knew what Lucifer was eventually going to do?"
