"A heroine every bit as provocative as Stieg Larsson's Lisbeth Salander." -The Dallas Morning News Haunted by a life of violence and as proficient with languages as she is with knives, Vanessa Michael Munroe, chameleon and hunter, has built her life on a reputation for getting things done--dangerous and often not-quite-legal things. The ability to survive, fight, adapt, and blend has since taken her across the globe on behalf of corporations, heads of state, and the few private clients who can afford her unique brand of expertise, and these abilities have made her enemies. On a busy Dallas street, Munroe is kidnapped by an unseen opponent and thrust into an underground world where women and girls are merchandise and a shadowy figure known as The Doll Maker controls her every move. While trusted friends race to find her, everything pivots on one simple choice: Munroe must use her unique set of skills to deliver a high-profile young woman into the same nightmare that she once endured, or condemn to torture and certain death the one person she loves above all else. In this high-octane thriller Munroe will have to fight fast, smart, and furious to overcome a dangerous nemesis and deliver her trademark brand of justice. Now with an excerpt from the latest Vanessa Michael Munroe novel, The Catch

Round Table

The next morning in Alpena, Michigan, lying exhausted in bed in yet another strange (but oh so familiar) motel room, I think about my life-our lives, Bart's and mine. Touring from town to town-no health insurance, no steady jobs, no children, no insurance of any kind against the dark forces in the world. Hanging Off the Edge is an extraordinary journey into the mind and life of one of America's most creative women, Priscilla McLean. McLean shares her precarious cliff-edge existence as a classical avant-garde troubadour and the day-by-day tour of the world through Europe, Asia, and Australia. She also writes of her touching story, from growing up in a middle-class family fallen on hard times during World War II to her seemingly settled life as a college professor's wife. McLean's quotes from her extensive journals, kept over a twenty-five-year span of time, give an immediacy and poignancy to Hanging Off the Edge. Mingled with these memories are original short poems, philosophical thoughts on the artist's life, and a whole section where McLean explores how, over the span of thirty-five years, thirteen special musical creations were born and placed before the world.

Moving beyond traditional notions of gender as a static concept wherein human beings are passively molded into gender-appropriate behavior, 23 scholars instead view it as a negotiated, contested, and interactive process. In showing some of the ways gender is made visible, they explore avenues such as the gender of things that surround us; subtle and invisible processes of inclusion and exclusion from valuation; fusing form and content, practice and product; and how the material culture of gender produces gendered beings.

The Independent

2013 Bronze Medal Winner for the Living Now Book Awards in the crafts, hobbies, and collecting category. The book entitled, Taylor's No-Sew Doll Clothes Patterns, Volume 1, by Christine Curry Taylor, is a craft book that includes patterns for making twenty-five doll clothes outfits, hats and accessories without sewing. It provides color pictures of all of the doll clothes. Patterns include doll clothes for the four seasons, spring, summer, fall and winter, with outfits for all occasions including career, sports, casual, and evening wear. Patterns include outer garments for winter including coats, capes and jackets. It includes patterns for bathing suits, sun hats, beach robes, jeans, pants, shorts, clothes with sleeves, evening gown, prom dress, dresses, suits, cowgirl shirt, cowgirl hat, cheerleading outfit, clown costume, lab coat, equestrian riding habit with helmet, and hunting outfit with cap, vest and belt pack. This method for making doll clothes without sewing is unique, simple and straightforward. The book includes clear, simple, step-by step instructions for all of the fashions and patterns. Each fashion comes with a list of materials, trim and fabric used, with the amounts given in both United States (US) units and Metric conversions. These patterns fit dolls 10 inches to 12 inches (25.4cm to 30.48cm) in height including the popular fairies, princesses and other dolls. United States (US) units and Metric conversions are given for all measurements. Young children, teens, and adults will enjoy making these doll clothes using this no-sew method with these patterns, and have a great deal of fun while doing it.
